LOCAL MISCELLANY.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF PARKS. JOHN HALLORAN, A CONTRACTOR, APPOINTED BY THE PARK BOARD.

The Park Commissioners held a special meeting yesterday morning. The question of choosing a site for the obelisk was not discussed. It is probable that another special meeting will be called within a few days, and its future situation then determined.

within a few days, and its future situation then determined.

Superintendent Dawson and Superintending Gardener Hepp were given a hearing to enable them to present their defence to the charges brought against them. After they had retired, a vote was taken and the charges were declared proved. Both were dismissed from the department. Commissioners Lane, Wenman, and Conover voted for their dismissal, and Commissioner Green against it. Commissioner Lane then presented the name of John Halloran as successor to John F. Dawson, Superintendent of Parks, and he was appointed, the vote standing Lane, Wenman and Conover in favor, and Green against. The office of Superintending Gardener is still vacant.

After the meeting a Termuse reporter asked Commissioner Conover who Mr. Halloran is. He replied: "I do not know him, but he has been highly recommended by — parties. The secretary knows more about him than I do."

The secretary, in reply to a similar question, said: "I believe he is a resident of the city. I do not know what his political affiliations are, but I think he is a Democrat; at least I heard some one say so. I understard that he is a good disciplinarian and is accustomed to handling large bodies of men."

Commissioner Lane, who proposed the me sup-

Commissioner Lane, who proposed the new sup-erintendent, said to the reporter: "Mr. Halloran has been a contractor, has a good knowledge of such work, and knows how to manage laborers such work, and knowledge about public well."

"Has he any special knowledge about public along the second se parks?"
"Not that I know of. But then it is very diffi-cult to obtain such a man. He will have every opportunity, and I have no doubt will make a good superintendent."
"Does he know anything about landscape gardening to the dening to dening to the dening to dening to dening ardener already. He will only have to superintend the workmen, to see that they perform their labor satisfactorily, and obey the orders of the Commissioners. That he is entirely competent

"Is he a member of Tammany Hall?"

"I do not think so. He votes the Democratic ticket, I know, for I asked him this morning after he had been appointed. This is not a political appointment at all."

THE PERMIT TO DUMP GARBAGE REVOKED. ACTION OF THE SHORE INSPECTOR-A SPECIAL PER-MIT TO BE GIVEN WITH EACH TOW.

For some time garbage has been unloaded from scows at the dumping grounds in violation of law. According to the permit granted by the Shore Inspector, the garbage should be dumped at the first of the ebb tide. Instead of being dumped at this time, it has been done repeatedly two hours or more after the ebb tide had set out. The persistent violation of the conditions of the permit led Shore Inspector Hopkins to issue the following notice to the Police Commissioners yesterday, revoking the permit:

To the Police Commissioners:

Notwithstanding the repeated assurances given me by several of the members of your Board personally, and by yourselves officially, and the repeated assertions on the part of your subordinates that the terms of my permit—allowing your scows to be taken through the Narrows to the Lower Bay upon condition of their being dumped on the first of the ebb tide—should be faithfully observed. I find they have not been complied with. I should be derelet in my duty, therefore, if I neglected longer to cancel the permit you now hold; and you are herewith informed that the permit given you July 4, 1880, is hereby revoked. No further permit will be given except from day to day, and only by myself personally or by a deputy, who will accompany the scow.

I do not desire to cripple the work of your Department, and I will see that a permit is granted for every tow that is dumped in compliance with such conditions as are found necessary to carry out the intention of the law.

Francis Hopkins, Shore Inspector.

It has been the custom, it is said, for those in charge of the scows to anchor in Gravesend Bay until ebb tide, when they would start for the dumping grounds to get the benefit of the tide. As they would not reach the grounds for two hours, the tide would turn again before the garbage was carried sufficiently out to sea, and bring it back upon the Coney Island beaches.

TO PREVENT COLLISIONS AT SEA. EXPERIMENTS WITH THE EARKER SAFETY SIGNAL MACHINE.

The Barker matine safety signal machine was exhibited yesterday at No. 65 Elizabeth-st. During the exhibition a large number of ship-owners, insurance agents and steamship and steamship and steamship and steamship are captains called to examine the merits of the invention. The experiments made in giving telegraphic signals, both with steam whistle and a fog trumpet blown by compressed air, were successful in every particular.

The machine is cylindrical in shape, and is placed vertically upon the floor. On the top is a circular movable disc, upon which are marked eight points of the compass. By turning the disc around either to the right or the left the machinery is adjusted for a particular signal, consisting of a certain number of long and short sounds. As soon as the signal has been blown the machinery rights itself to repeat the signal, or to make any other signal desired. The machine can also be worked by hand, in which case, by means of a cylinder in which air is compressed, the signals are made with a fog trumpet. The fog hern is to be used during a fog in cases of emergency where the ship's engine would get out of order.

Captain Barker was in charge of the machine, Captain Barker was in charge of the machine. Captain Barker was in charge of the case of the provisions of the correganization of the New York and Owwer Midland Railroad Company.

of order.

Captain Barker was in charge of the machine, and explained its workings to those present. He said that his attention was first directed to the matter of an improved system of signals after the loss of the Pommerania in the British Channel. His first machine was completed in 1878, and exhibited at the Maritime Exchange. But he was not satisfied with it, and worked diffigently at the machinery to improve it. Two weeks ago he finished the present machine, which he considers complete in all its appointments. plete in all its appointments.

A BURGLAR CAUGHT AT WORK.

A BURGLAR CAUGHT AT WORK.

Amandus Schraeder, a clerk in Otten's grocery store, at No. 444 Sixth-ave., went to his foom in the upper part of the building, which is also occupied by Otten, about 7 o'clock yesterday morning to prepare for breakfast, having been at work since daylight. He took out his key to unlock the door, but was surprised to find the door already unfastened, and upon pushing it open he found a man on his knees rummaging his (Schraeder's) trunk, and toosing his clothes about the floor. "What are you doing here?" demanded Schraeder, whereapon the stranger sprang to his feet and told Schraeder sized the burghar, when the latter drew at the or jimmy which he had concealed in his clothing, and strack Schraeder over the head with it, knocking him down. The man then dashed toward the stairs, but the cries of Schraeder for help-brought several persons to the scene, and the fugitive was [chased into the street. Officer Davis, of the Twenty-ninth Frecinet, joined in the pursuit, and after chasing the man in and out of several houses and up and down a dozen flights of stairs, at length caught him. The prisoner gave his name as James Morgan, said he was forty-six years of age, and came from Chicago; but he declined giving any further account of himself. Morgan was taken before Justice Kilbreth, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, and upon the companint of Schraeder and the officer he was locked up for trial with bail at $1000. The officer said he believed Morgan to be an old offender.

ASSAULTED WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

Joseph O'Donnell, proprietor of the liquor store at Sixth-ave, and Twenty-fourth-st, received, at 1:30 a.m., yesterday, a stab wound in the abdomen that will probably prove fatal, at the hands of Joseph Klenk, of No. 241 East Fifty-fourth-st, who was unknown to him. O'Donnell was standing on the sidewalk in front of his premises chatting with Peter Carley, a Custom Honse officer, when Klenk came up, and tapping O'Donnell on the shoulder, asked him to direct him to the house of a young woman named May O'Donnell replied that he did not know any such person, whereupon, without another work being said, Klenk drew a knife from his pocket and stabbed O'Donnell in the abdomen. As the wounded man sank to the ground and an alarm was raised, Officer Davis, of the Twenty-ninth Precinct, ran ap and seized Klenk. An ambulance was sent for, and O'Donnell was removed to the New-York Hospital, Klenk was taken before Justice Kilbreth, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, by Officer Davis, who presented a certificate from Dr. Leonard setting forth that O'Donnell was sangerously wounded. Klenk was committed to prison to await the result of O'Donnell's injuries.

SWEARING IN JUDGE RUSSELL. ASSAULTED WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

SWEARING IN JUDGE RUSSELL. Horace Russell was sworn in yesterday as a Judge of the Superior Court by Judge Freedman. The ceremony was performed in the Judge's private chambers, no other persons being present excepting the two participating and Judge Sedgeick. Judge Russell will sit in Chambers from August 10 to August 26 inclusive, and will also sit at the next session of the General Term.

DISTURBANCE IN A POOL ROOM. A disturbance in which one of the book-makers was shot occurred yesterday in Johnson's pool rooms, at No. 19 West Twenty-eighth-st. Fools were being sold for the Saratoga and Brighton races, and the room was crowded with sporting men, when John Hatfield, one of the pool-men, had some words with Benjamin Benton, and threw him out into the street, On the sidewalk he picked up a piece of board and struck at Benton, who turned, and drawing a pistol, fired at him. The bullet merely grazed Hatfield's elbow without inflicting any serious injury. Benton then ran away. He was pursued by the police, but not caught.

Hatfield attended to his business with a stiff arm during the rest of the day. He was at one time pitcher of the Mutual Base-Ball Club. Benton is said to be a frequenter of low places in Sixth-ave.

THE CITY DRENCHED WITH RAIN. UMBRELLAS IN DEMAND-EXTENT OF THE STORM-

THE GRADUAL CHANGE IN THE WEATHER.

Umbrellas have been the constant (companions of business men for the last three days. All day Tuesday black clouds hung over the cty, which occasionally broke and relieved the dreariness by a little sunshine. There was a storm centre then at Chicago, which was gradually moving eastward. The storm was exhausted before it reached here, but its influence was felt in the evening, when the rain fell for several hours. The rainfall on that day amounted to .83 inches, The outer edges of the storm lingered near the city on Wednesday, but the fall of rain was so slight that it could hardly be measured.

It was evident early yesterday morning that another storm would visit the city during the day. The weather was threatening and the atmosphere was damp and cold. Many persons discarded their light Summer clothing and wore heavier garments. Men were seen on the streets, with their Spring overcoats, and women were provided with suitable wraps. Light rains fell early in the day, but at 3 p. m. a heavy storm set in, and continued during the night. The city looked cheerless in the afternoon, and the principal thoroughfares, except where business men were compelled to be in the streets, were almost deserted. Up-town the city had the appearance of a lonesome country place in a storm. The excursion beats to the seashore made few trips, and the usually boisterous "runners" on the piers sought in vain for passengers. In the business part of the city men remained in their offices as much as possible. A running stream of water washed along the sidewaks and streets filling the gutters and overflowing the culverts. Unberellas were rendered almost useless, as the rain struck pede strians below the knees, thoroughly soaking their trousers. The ardor of the street vendors was dampened, and they hurried away with their fruit, some to seek consolation by selling unberlies at a premium.

The storm was a local one. There was no information at the United States Signal Office in this dors was dampeaed, and they hurried away with their fruit, some to seek consolation by selling umbrellas at a premium.

The storm was a local one. There was no information at the United States Signal Office in this city to show that there was a storm centre, but it was probably in the Gulf Stream and moved in a northeasterly direction. The storm began in Newtorleans, where 1.20 inches of rain fell. It then extended all along the coast as far as flooton. There were heavy rains at Baltimore and Philadelphia; at Washington the force of the storm was not so great. It did not travel far inland. Light rain fell at Albany. The character of the storm was not such as to do much damage in this city. On the ocean a severe storm was probably encountered. Signals were ordered up at Sandy Hook, Atlantic City, Cape May, Delaware Breakwater, and Barnegat. The amount of rain that fell in the city before 3 p. m. was .01 inch, and from 3 to 6.71 inches. The wind was northwest, and its greatest velocity was twelve miles an hour, at 6 p. m.

The gradual change in the fweather since Sunday was one of the feaness that produced the storm, Last week [the ; weather was excessively hot and almost mendurable.] On Saturday the temperature was 85°; on Sunday it fell to 81°. It rose one degree on Monday, and the people were congratulating themselves on the change; the weather was cool and charming On Tuesday the mercury did not rise above 76°—a fall of six degrees in one day. It remained about [the [same on Wednesday, and yesterday dropped six more degrees, making a difference of about fifteen degrees since Saturday. The change in the evaporating power of the air and the humidity tended to produce the rain.

AN INSPECTOR ALLEGED TO HAVE ROBBED A SAFE WHILE SEARCHING FOR CONTRABAND GOODS.

while searching for contraband goods.

George Stinson, a revenue inspector, was before Justice Duffy yesterday at the Tombs Police Court, on complaint of Robert Jackson, a dealer in eigars and leaf tobacco at No 40 First-st., for having, it is alleged, while pretending to be engaged in the discharge of his duties as an officer of the Gavernment, on July 10, stolen two one hundred dollar bills and two twenty dollar bills from a safe in the premises occupied by Jackson. According to the testimony of the complainant, of Mrs. Jackson, his wife, and of his daughter, a little girl, the accused man and his associate, Henry Coleman, called at Jackson's factory, and searched the place for contraband goods. They asked Mrs. Jackson for the keys of the safe, which they also searched. On the return of Jackson from the country, he opened the safe to examine his papers, and discovered the larceny of the money land for some letters. The particulars were reported to the Collector, and complaint was also made to Colonel Horace Kellogg. The accused man, it is stated, at first denied the charge, but when it was pressed at his office, acknowledged that he had searched the safe, and taken some letters, which he returned. Among them was an envelope marked on the back $2.50, and Jackson claims that the money was faken from this envelope, when the papers were removed from the safe.

OPPOSING A RAILROAD REORGANIZATION.

Under the provisions of the reorganization of the New-York and Oswego Midland Railroad Company, the stockholders were allowed six months from the organization of the new company within which they might participate in the plan, upon payment of $30 a share for each share of the old company's stock. This period expired yesterday, and about noon the officers of the New-York, Ontario and Westera Railroad Company, the new corporation, were served with an injunction restraining them from issuing stock at less than $30 a share, and from increasing the capital stock beyond the $50,000,000 authorized by the articles of incorporation. The suit was brought by Henry R. Low, of Middletown, a director of the former company and a large holder of its securities. The amount of the $50 assessments paid in before the serving of the injunction was $1.810.350, and afterway, before the close of business, the additional sum of $38,500 the close of business the sum of the sum of the sum of the sum of the sum of

SEEKING BULLS OUT OF WALL STREET.

A large crowd of people watched with interest the efforts of A. Fernantez and his Spanish assist ants, Wednesday, to select from the droves of cattle in the Jersey City stock yards some of the fiercest, to be used in the snam bull-fighting which is soon to take place in the city. The cattle were driven into an inclosed ground where the assistants of Fernandez waved red flags before them to see which of them had the necessary flerceness. The superintendent of the stock yards has forbidden Fernandez to select any nore cattle from these yards in this way, as it excites all the cattle more or less and interferes with business. An assistant of Fernandez said he thought he would have a sufficient number of cattle selected so that they could begin their enterprise in about two weeks. Seven animals have so far been found to have sufficient ferocity to answer the purpose. It has been suggested that if Fernandez would go to Wall Street, he would have no trouble in adding to las supply of fierce bulls. SEEKING BULLS OUT OF WALL STREET. his supply of fierce bulls,

CHARGED WITH A CONTEMPTIBLE CRIME.

Chief of Police McKenna, of Troy, N. Y., recently asked Superintendent Walling by letter to arrest a young man named William Warren, who, it was stated, had fled to this eity to escape arrest. Warren had gained the affections of a hard-working orphan girl of Troy, and op promising to marry her he had obtained from her about $350, which he took with him to New-York. The girl learned too late that Warren was a swindler. Last evening Detectives Cosgrove and Hines, of the Police Central Office, arrested a young man at Fourth-ave, and Fourteenth-st., who answered the description given of Warren. The prisoner gave his name as William Wallace, and was locked up to await the arrival of Troy officers. CHARGED WITH A CONTEMPTIBLE CRIME.

TRYING TO CUT HIS BROTHER'S THROAT. TRYING TO CUT HIS BROTHER'S THROAT.

Officer Simmons' of the Essex Market Police Court Squad, yesterday arranged before Justice Otterbourg, Sylvester Reid, colored, age thirty-one, a brakeman, living at No. 151 Kent-ave, Brooklyn, whom he arrested at the depot of the Long Island Railroad Company on a wacrant issued at the instance of his sister-in-law, Mary Reid, of No. 106 Suffolk-st. Mrs. Reid alleged that the prisoner was the person who dangerously cut her husband, Shadrach Reid, with a razor on July 18. The altercation between the brothers occurred at Elizabeth and Houston-sts., and Sylvester endeavored to cut Shadrach's throat Justice Otterbourg held the accused man for examination in default of $1,500.

twenty-seventh-st. to One-hundred-and-twenty-ninth-st., somewhat damaged by the heavy storms, is now being repaired.

THE STRIKING WORKMEN AT ROCKAWAY. TERMS ON WHICH THEY WILL RESUME WORK-LEGAL PROCEEDINGS THREATENED.

TERMS ON WHICH THEY WILL RESUME WORK—

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS THREATENED.

The strike of the workmen at the big hotel at Rockaway still continues, and there is apparently no change in the situation. There was no disturbance of any kind yesterday, and no trouble is feared if the directors of the company do as they have promised. The men, however, are getting restless at the delay, and if some definite settlement is not made to-day there are threats of bringing the matter into the courts. Meetings have been held by the workmen, and they have submitted their terms to the company; these are that they are willing to return to work if their claims are settled at once, and if not they will proceed to legal action.

This is not the decision of many, however. Large numbers have sold their certificates for their July pay for 50 cents on the collar, to hotel-keepers and others on the beach and have gone home, and others declare that if they were paid in full they would quit work at once. Colonel Moore, the superintendent of the works, said that he had been expecting either Manager Rice or President B. E. Smith at the beach all day, but the stormy weather kept them from coming. He thinks that some settlement will be made to-day by which the carpeniers will agree to return to work. The plasterers, glaziers and gasfitters are ready to return to work at any time when permitted by the other strikers, as they are doing contract work and have always been paid regularly. The commany has settled 20 per cent of the claims of the hotel and boarding-house keepers against it, so that the men are now permitted to go back to their meals again, although they express much dissatisfaction at the quality of the food furnished. Reports of rioting and violence are without foundation, and the man, John Conners, who is said to have been shot, had no connection with the hotel workmen. The affray was at the other end of the beach.

President Smith has stated that over $1.000,000

President Smith has stated that over $1.000,000 has already been spent on the work by the Rockaway Beach Improvement Company, and that the company was now negotiating a loan of balf a million to complete the work. The wages now due amount to about $60,000, and it is probable that the affair will soon be amicably settled.

Many of the laborers on the New-York, Woodhaven and Rockaway Beach Railroad quit work yesterday, as they have not been paid for the month of June.

NEW JERSEY RAILROAD ENTERPRISES.

fral Park powish the starchy, martial and lonely beat with the starchy, martial and Queen's sentry.

"No, sir," said "Mae" pacing back and torth and disinclined to halt for conversation.

"Well, see here," said the other, "the relief should be here at 2 o'clock; it's now half past, and it's our custom generally to wait ten or fifteen minutes after the time, and if the relief doesn't come then we 'slide out' and let 'em take their chances."

chances."

"It don't matter," said; "Mae" pacing with increased energy, "I shall remain here until my relief comes if I walk until sundown;" and his honest face seemed to say: "If matters go wrong in this city it will be from no neglect of duty on my part."

"Mac's" appearance and bearing indicate his Irish origin and long military experiences. He served twelve years in the cavalry in India, and took part in the quelling of the Punjaub mutiny.

SUSPECTED OF INCENDIARISM.

SUSPECTED OF INCENDIARISM.

Patrick Hassett, who keeps a liquor store at No. 81 Duffield-st., Brooklyn, was arrested yesterday upon suspiction of causing a fire in his store, which was discovered by Officer Allen at 2:30 a. m. vesterday. The officer, in passing the store, saw a flash of light, and tried to open the door, hearing footstens inside. He received no response to his knocking, but soon Hassett, his barkeeper, and the other persons in the house appeared. After the alarm was given the firemen soon appeared and the flames were put out after a loss of $500. From the suspicions of the officer Hassett and the barkeeper were arrested, but the barkeeper was not held. Hassett paid a rent of $62.50 a month. He had an insurance of $1.500 in the Germania Company. He was held for examination on July 27.

ASSAULTED BY A DOCTOR.

ASSAULTED BY A DOCTOR.

Dr. Isaac Meyer, of No. 23 Ludlow-st., was arraigned yesterday at the Essex Market Police Coart before Justice Otterbourg yesterday, charged with a felonious assault committed on Bertha Marks, living in the same house. The woman and the doctor's wife had a dispute in the hallway and called each other names, when the doctor interfered and pushed the woman down three stone steps into the yard, where she fell with such force that she fractured her skail. The woman was removed to the Chambers Street Hospital, where the physicians stated it was likely she would die. Officer White, of the Teuth Precinct, arrested Dr. Meyer, and the Justice held him to await the result of the woman's injuries.

A REWARD FOR THE ARREST OF BOONE. A REWARD FOR THE ARREST OF BOONE.
Collector Rodney C. Ward, of the First Internal Revenue District (Brooklyn), was authorized yesterday by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Green B. Raum to offer a reward of $500 for the arrest and delivery to the United States Marshal for the Eastern District of New-York of missing ex-Deputy Collector Silas I. Boone, who is charged with embezzlement of public money. The reward is offered with the approval of Secretary Sherman. In spite of diligent search, no clew to Mr. Boone's movements has been found since he went away, a month ago, after Agent Hale had failed to find the tobacco stamps, worth $19,000, which Boone had not accounted for.

MUSHROOMS IN THE OLD AQUEDUCT.

On account of the scarcity and growing demand for mushrooms, many attempts have been made in the city and suburbs for several years to raise them in damp cellars, old cisterns, and other places which seemed to offer favorable conditions, with only partial success. A year ago a Frenchman, thinking the old aqueduct at Ninety-sixth-st, could be used profitably for the purpose, made extensive arrangements for growing them there. The experiment proved unprofitable—he has moved away—the old aqueduct is again a useless ruin, and the supply of mushrooms in the city is not yet equal to the demand. MUSHROOMS IN THE OLD AQUEDUCT.

FORGED CHECKS UNTRACED.

beth and Houston-sts., and Sylvesier endeavored to cut Shadrach's throat Justice Otterbourg held the accused man for examination in default of $1,500.

HOW RIVERSIDE DRIVE APPEARS.

With much sprinking and rolling the roadway of the Riverside Drive is becoming hard and smooth. It is lined its whole length on both sides with a vigorous growth of pig weeds, thistles, burdocks, and other noxions growths. In some places the weeds have fairly arched the narrow flagging of the sidewalk. The recent heavy rains filled many of the sewer basins with sand and gravel, which workmen are taking out with long-handled hoes. The roadway on the steep hill from One-hundred-and posited Gierke was arrested. These facts were presented in the Crurt yesterday, and Gierke testified in his own defence that he received the checks in the regular way of business. The jury acquitted

THE BROOKLYN POLICE MUDDLE.

The order requiring Messrs. Leich and Pyburn to show cause why they should not turn over to General Jourdan, as sole Commissioner of Police in Brooklyn, the books and papers of the Police Department, and to Messrs. Jourdan. Coleil and Stears, as Commissioners of Excise, the records of that Department, came up for argument before Judge Cooke in the Kings County Supreme Court yesterday morning. As the matter had aroused much attention from its various phases, there were many persons interested in the workings of the City Govenment present. General Jourdan was represented by General B. F. Tracey, Mr. Pyburn by General P. S. Crooke. The latter asked for an adjournment as his associate counsel was absent and the papers had been served so recently, Mr. Pyburn receiving them at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, and Mr. Leich at 10 o'clock yesterday, Mr. Leich was not represented by counsel. General Tracy urged that proceedings should be taken against Mr. Pyburn at once, while the hearing in regard to Mr. Leich could be postponed. After some disension Judge Cooke urged that the matter should be settled, so that the public might know who was in charge of the Department. Finally the hearing of the case was set down for July 27.

It was rumored last evening that General Jourdan sent an order late yesterday afternoon requiring the captains of the various precincts to appear in the Grand Jury room this morning. The proceedings were said to be connected with efforts to show that Messrs. Leich & Pyburn had acted illegally in granting licenses. THE BROOKLYN POLICE MUDDLE.

gally in granting licenses.

NO STOPPING OF SNOW-PLOUGHS IN JULY. An injunction was served on the police last Winter restraining them from interfering with the use of snow-ploughs on the street railroads. The injunction recently has been made permanent. Yesterday Superintendent Walling was amazed at finding himself served with an order from the courts prohibiting him from arresting or causing the arrest of drivers of snow-ploughs on the Twenty-third Street Railroad.

FASTING FOR FAME.

DR. TANNER'S WRETCHED CONDITION. COMPLAINING OF NAUSEA-A FAILING PULSE AND

GENERAL WEAKNESS-FND OF THE TWENTY-

NEW-JERSEY RAILROAD ENTERPRISES.

A new corporation, known as the Bersen County R. A new corporation, known as the Bersen County R. A new corporation, known as the Bersen County R. A new corporation, known as the Bersen County R. A new corporation, known as the Bersen County R. A new corporation, known as the Bersen County R. A new corporation of the Land new corporation of the Land new corporation of the Land makes a straight inferion the land course in the tracks of the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad. A portion of the land needed for the new corporation of the new corporation of the land needed for the new corporation of the land needed for the new corporation of the land needed for the new corporation of the new corporation of the needed for th ark policeman to one who was pacing his beat with the starchy, martial air of a sentry.

s sentry.

s sentry.

s sentry.

s sentry.

s sentry. necessary carefully to select favorable times for taking these observations as the Doctor's pulse and temperature vary with circumstances—such circumstances for example as the visit of a woman who insisted upon reading aloud to the Doctor a tractentitled. "Have You a Soul to be Saved?" the affectionate interest of another, who wished to cook something for the starving man, and thought gruel wouldn't hurt him; or the attack of a medleal representative of tine gentler sex, who commanded the Doctor to submit to her examination. Then a stout woman appeared, and fixing the Doctor with her glittering eye asked, "Are you a spiritualist?" The Doctor feebly denied the imputation, though there was much more of the spiritual in his appearance than in that of his interlocutor. Then he was asked if he belonged to the Liberal Club, which he also denied, though he said he had attended its meetings. The Doctor seemed exhausted by the repeated assaults, and about 3 p. m. he fell asleep and slept for two hours, a remarkably long hap for him in the day time. At 5:30 he woke to find the gallery crowded with visitors waiting for a good, uninterrupted stare. The Doctor raised himself, as it seemed making a strong effort, and sitting on the edge of the cot read his afternoon mail. Then he worde one or two letters himself, and slowly walked down through the hall into the auteroom. One of the watchers, a new comer, and fresh in the business, apparently thought the faster needed slowly walked down through the hall into the anteroom. One of the watchers, a new comer, and fresh in the business, apparently thought the faster needed no further attention, for he stood by the cot striking a highly statue-sque attitude, while the faster marched off by himself. Another watcher, who was very fat and somewhat short-winded, found himself divided between two duties. He ought to have followed the faster, yet he wished to secure his cane at the other end of the gallery. He made a wild dive for the cane, upsetting several charts and then, with a series of elephantine leaps, thundered downstairs after the Doctor, while the visitors walled in breathless suspense to ascertain the cause of the tunuit.

stairs after the Dector, which are visuous water the breathless suspense to ascertain the cause of the tunult.

As Dr. Tanner walked across the large hall it was noticeable that his step was somewhat feebler than it has been, though there can be no doubt that he puts forth a tremendous effort to appear vigorous when he undertakes any exertion in public. On reaching the ante-room he threw humself heavily on his cot, and was unwilling to be moved or disturbed. The ram outside was falling so heavily that the evening drive was abandoned, and the Doctor was wrapped in blankets and allowed to lie near the open window. He was much troubled with flatulency and showed himself, rather irritable whenever he spoke, which was only at long intervals. The Doctor lay upon the cot in the antercom for three-quarters of an hour. Then he rose mechanically, staggering a little on his feet. He walked slowly and heavily out into the main hall, with hent shoulders, looking more than ever like a broken-down old man. Going to the scales, in the hall, his weight was ascertained to be 131½ pounds, a loes of one pound since 5:30 p. m. on Wedinesday. Then the Doctor ascended to the gallery, unwilling, apparently, to wait while his pulse and temperature were taken, and threw himself down on his cot. He said nothing, and seemed as if he were almost exhausted. Then he was covered with blankets and went to sleep. At 10 p. m. he was still sleeping heavily.

Dr. Miller said last night: "It has been my opinion for two or three days that a crisis was approaching, and I think so still more now. His restless

"Dr. Miller said last night: "It has been my opinion for two or three days that a crisis was approaching, and I think so still more now. His restless sleep last night, his sickness this morning, weak pulse, drowsiness and evident feebleness, are all bad signs, and I am inclined to think the Doctor has about reached the limit of his endurance. Still he has a way every once in a while of rousing up and seeming all right that upsets all a man's theories and predictions. He is very apt, however, I think, to brace up for the occasion. On the whole I consider him rather worse to-day."

It was found last night by consulting the record-

This decrease is probably due partially, if not en-tirely, to the change in the weather since Sunday.

Snooks was a hard case, but he took a turn Shooks was a hard case, but he took a turn bout and joined the church, expecting great spiritual regeneration from the act. Next day he was perambulating his snop in a deep study and solthentizing softo yooc, yet so loud as to be overheard by his workment. "Than," experienced any conversion. I don't see any difference. I don't feel any enange, and — it, i don't betwee there is any."

HOME NEWS.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS. Fifth Avenue Hotel—Congressman R. V. Pierce, of Baffalo: Attorney General Hamilton Ward, of Albany; Judgi John C. Dunievy, of Chicago, and C. W. Moulton, of Cincin natt. New York Hotel—Congressman John Goode, of Virginia. Grand Central Hotel—The Hon, Gove Sanisbury of Delaware. Hofman House-Gilbert C. Walker, of Delaware. Windson Hotel—The Hon, A. Yorke, of Prince Leopold's suite, and J. M. Walker, of Chicago. Albemarte Hotel—Vicente Galarza, of Havana.

NEW-YORK CITY. Some of the Fulton Ferry boats have leaky roofs Handsome evening and dinner dresses are ornamented with ostrich plumes.

Morris Phillips, of The Home Journal, sailed for Europe on July 17 on the Spain.

The Boulevard stages are so filthy that flies follow them as they follow fish wagons.

Many house corsages are worn open at the throat in either Pompadour or heart shape.

Laces embroidered with metals of all kinds will be among the novelties of the Autumn.

Crock's Amateur Band will give its fifth public concert this evening in the Battery Park.

Ell F. Macgovern, superintendent, states that the James Shp Ferry is not to be discontinued. The Orphans' Maennerchor held its second annual summernights' festival last evening at Terrace Gar-

The elevator in the Post Office will be once m in working order some time in August, it is ex-

The Dessoug, with the obelisk on board, is still anchored in the North River. It has attracted few

The Intercollegiate Challenge Cup, won by the Columbia College crew at Philadelphia, is in Tiffany's window.

The wheat market railied yesterday and prices advanced from $^1_2$ to $^4_4$ of a cent a bushel; flour was from 5 to 15 cents better.

Very large and very small parasols are both in fashion. All tastes are consulted in the Summer styles in parasols and costumes.

The new free bath house that was towed from Gowanus Bay Tuesday was opened to the public yesterday. It is at the foot of East Nineteenth-st.

A wipow's MITE.

"A widow's mite." $1 for the Seaside Sanitarium, has been received from Peckskill and sent to the Sanitarium. "R. A. L." sends $2 for the same abject.

Michael Jones, age thirty-three, jumped from a fire-escape in the fourth story of No. 454 East Thirteenth-st., yesterday, in a fit of insane desperation, and was killed.

The conductors on the Third-Avenue Street Rail-road are not permitted to give one-cent pieces to the company for fares. Hence their anxiety to get rid of them in making change.

MILITARY VISITORS TO GOVERNOR'S ISLAND.

It is reported that General Hancock yesterday had a long consultation with his old comrades in arms, General F. B. Spinola, Colonel James Kerrigan and General Patrick H. Jones.

WISE MEN AND FOOLISH WOMEN. The wise man lingers on the stairway of the ele-vated station when the hour hand trembles on the verge of 5 o'clock p. m., but the foolish woman rusies ahead and pays double price for the same train.

A PROTECTION ONLY IN NAME.

The shed on Pier 1, North River, nominally for the protection of steamboat passengers, seems to have been so constructed as to gather all the rain and empty it upon the unfortunate passengers' heads.

THE ARION FESTIVAL TO NIGHT.

In consequence of the rain last night the Arion Society's festival at Wost Brighton Beach was postponed, and will take place this evening. All the arrangements made with boats and trains will be carried out this evening.

"M." sends THE TRIBUNE $2 for John H. Bush;
"W." also sends $2 " for the man who saved twenty-one lives, some not worth saving or they would have remembered him." "A Sympathizer in Connecticut" sends $5. Connecticut" sends $5.

A WOMAN BADLY BEATEN.

A WOMAN BADLY BEATEN.

Margaret Rafferty, age forty-six, of No. 65 Oliverst., was taken to the Chambers Street Hospital yesterday evening suffering from severa injuries of the head and body. The police ascertained that she had been beaten on Wednesday evening by a man named John Farrell.

WHERE THERE IS DANGER OF COLLISION.
One of the most dangerous craft on the bay is

One of the most dangerous craft on the bay is the large pleasure barge. It is towed by a small tug-boat attached to its side, from which it is impessible to see across the barge. The paths of steamers are often directly crossed by these boats, at imminent peril of collision.

FINE STALLIONS FROM SCOTLAND.

Two fine Clydesdale stallions, said to be the best ever brought to this country from Scotland, arrived in the steamship State of Indiana Wednesday. They are now at No. 600 Greenwich-st., but will soon be removed to William Crozer's extensive breeding farm at Northport, L. I.

CENSURED FOR HAVING AN OPEN HOLSIWAY.

CENSURED FOR HAVING AN OPEN HOISTWAY.

Coroner Brady held the inquest yesterday in the case of David J. Grady, a boy, of No. 715 Washington-st, who on July 15 fell through an ash hoistway opposite No. 15 Spruce-st, and was killed. The jury censured the occupants of the building for not having proper safeguards around the hoistway.

GEITING OUT OF BED AGAINST ORDERS.
Henry McKenna, of No. 316 East Forty-seventhst, was recently struck in the abdomen by a niece of timber, and died from his injuries. A certificate setting forth these facts was received yesterday at the Coroner's office, with the further details, added by the attending physician, that one cause of death was "heart shock because of getting out of bed against my orders."

against my orders."

TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS IN THE PREE BATHS.
In the case of Henry Folyknecht, the boy who was drowned in the free bath at the foot of Bethunest, on July 15, a Coroner's jury yesterday recommended "that a portion of the baths, the depth of which shall be less than 4 feet 4 inches, be set apart for small boys, and that an expert swimmer be employed for the express purpose of guarding against such accidents in the future."

such accidents in the future."

THE ASSESMENT COMMISSION.

The Assessment Commission, appointed by recent act of the Legislature to take action upon disputed cases of assessments for municipal improvements in this city, held a second meeting in the Mayor's office yesterday. A resolution of respect to the memory of the late John S. Lawrence, who died after being appointed a member of the Commission, was adopted. The Commission, adjourned until September 10, when it will begin the consideration of cases, notices of which have been filed in the meantime. CHARGED WITH STEALING DIAMONDS.

Delia Hurley, age fifteen, who lives with her mother in Mott Haven, went to live as a servant with Edward Connoll, of No. 7 Mercer-st., who keeps a Summer boarding house at Edgewater, Bergen Conaty, N. J. Last week she disappeared from the hotel, and soon after it was discovered that she had stolen diamonds valued at $185. She was followed to her hame in Mott Haven, where it was learned that she had given the jewels to her mother, representing that she had found them, and that her mother had pawned them for $20. Delia was arrested, and in the Harlem Police Court vesterday she was committed for trial in default of $500 bail. BROOKLYN.

Edward A. Lewis, age twenty-five, of No. 63 Ross-st., has been missing since July 11. He has dark hair and eyes and is five feet seven inches in height. John McCornnels, age thirty, a sailor on the English bark Staifordshire, lying at the foot of Van Brunt-st., was arrested yesterday for assailing Martin Alexander, the cook of the bark, with a belaying pin and knocking him insensible. Alexander was removed to the Long Island College Hospital. Clothing valued at $200 was stolen on Wednesday evening from three clothes-lines in Herkimerst, and Atlantic-ave. It was found in a house at No. 109 Rochester-ave., and the occupants, six black and two white persons, were arrested. One of them is known as "No Toe Charley;" he is a notorious thief.

The Department of City Works has annuiled the existing contracts for street-cleaning in all the wards excepting the Fifth, Sixth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth. Proposals will be advertised for to complete the work for the rest of the year. Mayor Howell has called a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen for to-morrow to settle the matter of street-cleaning.

street-cleaning.

Judge Barnard vesterday granted an absolute divorce in the suit of Louise Pahn against Jacob Hahn. They live in Brookly:. and were married in 1878. Shortly afterward Hahn gave his wife a bill of separation in consideration of $25 from another man, whom she married. Finding that this was not legal, Mrs. Hahn took measures to secure a legal divorce. No defence was presented.

Mrs. Mary Kaasberg, alias Kauffman, who was acquitted of malpractice in causing the death of Mrs. Sophia Berghausen last week, and who was immediately rearrested for a similar crime in connection with Mrs. Caroline Smith, was discharged from custody yesterday, the District-Attorney having entered a noile prosequi from the lack of evidence. Mrs. Smith was a witness in the first trial, but refused to criminate herself.

Justice Ferry, in the First District Court, yester-but refused to criminate herself.

Justice Ferry, in the First District Court, yesterday held for the Grand Jury William Brady, cf No. 37 Emmett-st., and Richard Stapleton, of No. 57 Columbia-st., upon the charge of feloniously assulting Mrs. Ann Holden, of No. 35 Willow-st. The prisoners belong to the notorious "Sandky Hollow Gaug." The evidence showed that on March 7 they entered Mrs. Holden's house and struck her over the head, broke her left leg, and left her in a dangerous condition. She has not yet recovered, and appeared in court with two crutches.

JERSEY CITY. Patrick Graham, the boy living at No. 379 Fourth-st., who ran away from his home, was picked up by a policeman of Philadelphia in a starving condition. Yesterday he was brought back home.

Anna Garry of No. 900 Myrtle-ave.. Brooklyn, was prostrated with the heat Wednesday night, and was sent to the Charity Hospital.

John Crimmins and John Howard, two notorions rufflans, were arrested yesterday for brutally as-saulting Bridget Coolihan, of No. 518 Henderson-st. NEWARK.

A young man of respectable appearance, who engaged beard at No. 283 Market-st, a few days ago, went away with money and clothing which he took from the rooms of the other boarders.

from the rooms of the other boarders.

The main pipe of the water works at Bellevilla burst early yesterday morning, and a piece of the iron pipe six feet long, with the earth that had covered it, was thrown several yards in the air. There was a great rush of water, and before the flow could be stopped a gully had been washed ten feet deep and six feet wide. The work of repairing the break began yesterday.

NEW-JERSEY.

NEW-JERSEY.

Hoboken.—Paul Richter, a messenger employed by A. Adermann, of No. 630 Eighth-ave., New-York, was arrested in Hoboken Wednesday night on a charge of stealing a quantity of goods which ha had been given to deliver to customers.

West Hoboken.—Mrs. Henry Windhelm died suddenly yesterday morning. Dr. De Graff, of Union Hill, who was summoned as the woman was dying, refused to give a certificate of death, alleging that the woman had been improperly treated by a woman physicisn.

LONG ISLAND. LONG ISLAND.

BALDWIN's.—George Bauer, arrested for stealing a stack of wheat from the farm of Francis Covert, at Deer Park, was arraigned before Justice Losee at Baldwin's yesterday. He pleaded guity and was sentenced to six months imprisonment.

AMITYVILLE.—Since the murder of Louis Schmidt, at Amityville, the Suffolk County Supervisors have held a meeting, but they took no action in regard to the murder. This murder is the seventh one remaining unsolved that has occurred in Suffolk County within a period of five years.

County within a period of five years.

Mineola.—The papers in the suit of Mary A. Pride against John Pride for a limited divorce, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, were filed yesterday. The parties live at Mineola. Mrs. Pride alleges that her husband has many times threatened to kill her by shooting. Pride denies the allegations, and says that it is a conspiracy against him. George Dougherty, a grocer at Mineola, alleges that he sued Pride for $304 for goods sold and delivered. He also alleges that while passing Pride's house he heard Mrs. Pride's cries, and upon going in found Pride beating her. Pride rushed at him, and in self-defence he knocked him down. Pride then had him arrested for assault and battery. Pride has retained counsel to bring an action against Dougherty to recover damages for loss he has sustained by Dougherty's having alienated the affections of Mrs. Pride.

STATEN ISLAND.

STATEN ISLAND.

NORTHEIELD.—It is run ored that Supervisor White, of Northfield, is about to tender his resignation, owing to the pressure of his private business. tion, owing to the pressure of his private business.

RICHMOND.—County Treasurer Robinson has been authorized by the Supervisors to borrow $12,000, if necessary, to provide for the payment of the county bonds which will fall due in August.

New-Brighton.—The trustees have appropriated the sum of $1,500 to the Fire Department, to be divided among four engine and hose companies.

J. C. Hill has been reappointed clerk of the village of New-Brighton.

Manuscript Happon.—Loremiah Curtiss better.

Mariner's Hardon, —Jeremiah Curtiss, better known as "Uncie Jerry Curtiss," died recently at his home in Mariner's Harbor. He was born a slave in Gloucester County, Va., in 1778. He purchased his free Com and came to Staten Island in 1838.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. MINIATURE ALMANAC,

NOTICE TO MARINERS. OFFICE OF THE LIGHTH USE BOARD, WASHINGTON, July 19, 1880. RHODE ISLAND-CHANGE OF COLOR OF BLOCK ISLAND BREAKWATER RANGE LIGHTS. Notice is hereby given that hereafter the range lights which guide into the anchorage near the breakwater, Block Island, khode Island, will be fixed red, instead of fixed white, as heretefore shown.

Re ander of the Lighthouse Board, JOHN RODGERS, Rear Admiral U. S. Navy, Chairman

SHIP NEWS. PORT OF NEW-YORKJULY 22. Str Baltie (Br), Parsell, Liverpool July 13 and Queenstown

14, to I. J Cortis.

Str Claribel (Br), Jones, Ponce, P. R., June 27, Mayaguez 29,
Str Claribel (Br), Jones, Ponce, P. R., June 27, Mayaguez 29,
Aquadhia July 1. Arecenbo 2, nt Johns, P. R., 3, Fajardo 5, Humacea 6, and Ponce 7, to Pim, Forwood 420o, Str Chy of San Autonio, Burrows, Galveston 7 days, to O City of San Antonio, Burrows, Garrence, illory & Co. Old Dominion, Walker, Richmond, City Point and Norolk, to Old Dominton Ss Co. Sir Isaac Bell, Lawrence, West Point, Va. to Old Dominion Ss Co.

Sir E C Knight, Young, Georgetown, D C, and Alexandria, to J L Boome, ir.

Sir Breakwater, Gibbs, Lewes, Del. to Old Dominion

andria, to J L Roome, it.

Sir Breakwater, Gibbs, Lewes, Det. to Old Dominion
Sa Co.

Sab Wm McGilvery (of Searsport), Nickels, Hamburg 40 days, with old from and empty barrels to order; vessel to R P Buck & Co.

Bark Reno (Aust), Stephanovich, St Vincent June 19, via Delawire lifeakwater, in ballast to Slocovich & Co.

Bark Lady of the Lake (of Hristol), Burrell, Matanzas 19 days, with sugar to S & W Welsh; vessel to Geo F Bulley.

Bark Agdar (Nor., Tobiassen, Nowry 39 days, in ballast to Bockmann, Oerlein & Co.

Bark Palats Gallela (Fr), Sengnet, Pointa-Pitre 22 days, with molasses to order, vessel to master.

Brig Land W Armstrong, Bates, of and from New-Haven, in ballast to L W & P Amistrong.

Brig Water Lily (of Port Jefferson), Perry, St Crofx 19 days, with sugar, molasses and rum to Bartram Bros; vessel to G
M Smith.

Schr Isola (of Castine), Smith, St John, N B, 16 days, with

M Smith.
Schr Isola (of Castine). Smith, St John, N B, 16 days, with immer to F H Smith & Co.
Schr Henjamin Young (of Machias). Catto, Sands River, N
12 days, with spiling to Beard & Kemble.
Schr A H Ruribnt, Crossley, Kennebec River, Me, with tee
o Scott & Co.

to Scotl. & Co.
Schr. L. B Sarrent, Sargent, Bluehili with granite to Bridge
Co. vessel to F. H. Smith & Co.
Schr. Wan Dougiass, McLudoe, Baracoa 11 days, with fruit to Gomez & Pearsall, vesset to L. C. Wenderg, Schr. Lily, Cole, Charleston 6 days, with lumber to J. E.
Lasher, vessel to Evans. Ball & Co.
Schr. Essex, Cicavez, Portland, with lumber to John H. Can-

Schr Essex, Cleaves, Portland, with lumber to John H Cannon.
Schr Lewis Clark, Bartlett, Bangor, with ice to W E Mann, WIND-Sunset-At Saniv Hook, fresh, NW; raining and foggy. At City Island, moderate N; raining.
CLEARED.

Strs City of Montreal (Br), Condron, Liverpool via Queenstown, John G Dale: Othollo (Br), Mitchell, Hull, Sanderson & Son; Horder (Ger), Brandt, Hamburg via Plymonth and Cherbourg, Kunhardt & Co; Cannana (Br), Crowell, parts of the West Indies, A E Outerbridge & Co; Neptime, Berry, Boston, H F Dimock; Eleanora, Brage, Portland, J F Ames, Vineland, Bowen, Battimere, J S Krems; Saratoga, Curtis, Havana, J E Ward & Co.
Ship Therese, Worth, Antwerp, Thomas Dunham's Nephew & Co.

Ship Therese, Worth, Antwerp, Thomas Dunham's Nephew & Co.

Burks Tordenskjold (Nor). Salveson, Cork for orders, Funch, Edive & Co. G de Zaldo, Miller, Guantanamo, Waydell & Cor.

Con Adler (Nor). Kirdensen. Stettin, Funch. Edye & Co. Emile Kall (Oer). Funck, Ceonstadt, Rus, Funch, Edye & Co. Vasco Guana (Nor). Andrewson, Mockholm, Bockmann, Oordela & Co. Apotheke Diesnig (Ger). Legebratth, Reval, Rus, Funch, Edye & Co. Carl Gerhard (Ger), Peters, Hamburg, C Toblas & Co. Marid, Barri, Rotterlam, Snow & Burgess, Freden (Nor). Arenizen, Copenhagen, C Toblas & Co. Joseph Boker, Ryder, Liverpool, Yates & Porterfield.

Brigs A J White (Br), LeBiane, St John, N B, Hatton, Watson & Co. Eastern Star, Bogart, Bridgetown, Ber, H Trowbridge's Sons.

Schra City of Chelsea, Coodwin, Greytown, Nic, A P Stroat, Olivia A Mullen (Br), O Mullen, Parrsboro, NS, C. W Bertaux, St John, N B, Havens & Co. Cohasset, Finlay, St John, N B, A T Heney.

FOREIGN PORTS.

FOREIGN PORTS.

LONDON, July 22.—Arr here, British sits Thames and Aylong from Montreal. Arr at Antwerp, the British sits Melita from New-York, and Farnley from Baltimore; at Copenhagen, str. Thingvalia (Dan), from New-York.

Liverroot, July 22.—The str Mobile (Br), from Mobile, has gir here. arr here.
QUEENSTOWS. July 22.—The atr Lord Gough, from Philadel-phia, has arr for Liverpool.
Sailed at 4:30 p m 21st inst, atr Celtic from Liverpool for Sailet at 4:30 pm Tlat linst, streeting loss are specially new York.

LONDON, July 22.—Sailed 10th linst, Erna (Capt Sorensen), from Droutheim; 17th loss, Jothan, the latter for Philadeublia, Vincenzo Perotta; 19th linst, Luce, Ragnar; 20th linst, Arctic (Capt Ulstrap), Guidrenn, Nor (Capt Randwig), Prindeassan, Theodor, the latter for Philadeublia; 21st linst, Victor (Capt Magnesen), 22d linst, Nipote Accame, the latter for Raillinger, Arr 18th linst, Albert, Roianza; 21st linst, Coichester, the latter at Portland, Sorridderen.

NOTICE.

The name of this atr Houssa of Pim. Forwood & Co's Line of West India steamers, has been changed this day to Arden. For Later Ship News, if any, see Fifth Park.

Anouscemental The mortality among infants, arising chiefly from food deficient in nutriment and difficult of digestion, may be avoided in a great measure by the use of Medica Food, the only real substitute for mother's milk. A trial will prove its value. Sold by all druggists and grocers. Price, 75 cents. T. METCALF & Co., Boston, Mass.

WOMAN'S FRIEND.-James Pyle's Pearline,

CHOICE OFFICE ROOMS

THE TRIBUNE BUILDING TO LET AT LOW RATES.

OTIS ELEVATORS. OTIS BROTHERS & Co. 348 Broadway, N.

PREATMENT AND CURE FOR HERNIA. Why live in Torment, when "White's Patent Leve with its wonderini lifting power, will bring comfor are t Unlike all other trusses it has no pressure on the Back. Safe and veltable; cond for Pumphlet. Addition

Back. Safe and veltable; cond for Pumphlet. Addition
Black. Safe and veltable; cond for Pumphlet. Safe and veltab